

China Three Gorges Corporation (CTG) is committed to integrating social responsibilities with the principles of ethics and sustainability in the economic, social and environmental aspects. These principles are embedded in the Sustainable Development Policy by social ethical environment, health and safety and risk management.

“

- Establish the occupational health and safety policy;
- Implement the safety management system and training;
- Incorporate the requirements of the relevant laws and regulations into the management system by the Chinese government and international organizations;
- Conduct training at the various levels and encourage workers to participate;
- Report the activities and results of the management system;

Other

- Develop the management system for each project;
- Establish the management system for occupational risks according to the requirements of OHSAS 18001; OHSAS 18001
- Report the designated protected areas by the national government such as World Heritage Sites and Ramsar sites;

- Rehabilitate degraded areas and aspects;
- Establish mechanisms to ensure the continued financing of
- Implement social and environmental measures as the balance sheet and in global in line with CTG's policy
- Establish a chain & governance mechanism to ensure the protection;
- Preserve heritage;
- Develop and implement CTG's Sustainable Development Policy as a guide ;
- Develop and implement
- People's

CTG is committed to achieving Sustainable Development Policy and its conditions. All CTG employees are required to follow this policy and fulfill their responsibilities.