

China Three Gorges Corporation (CTG) is committed to being the essential Company with the principles of ethics and sustainability in the economic, social and environmental aspects. These principles are embedded in the Sustainable Development Policy and social ethical environment and are the basis of our business.

“

- Establish occupational health and safety policies
- Implement safety management system
- Incorporate environmental requirements into the guidelines issued by the Chinese government and international organizations
- Conduct training with NGOs and business partners;
- Report the activities and results to the public;

Other

- Develop environmental management system;
- Establish and promote the occupational practices according to the requirements by OHSAS 18001; OHSAS 18001
- Report the designated protected areas by international agencies such as World Heritage Sites and RAMSAR sites

- Rehabilitation of basic facilities;
- Establish mechanisms for international cooperation;
- Implement social responsibility and actively participate in the balance of regional development in the Three Gorges area;
- Establish a risk management mechanism for the project;
- Personnel training;
- Deepen cooperation with CTG's Sustainable Development Policy as a guide;
- Deepen cooperation with the government,
- Personnel training

